CREATIVES

LOWELL GANZ (Book) grew up in Queens and moved to Los Angeles to begin a career writing for television shows, including The Odd Couple, Happy Days and Laverne and Shirley (which he co-created). After teaming up with Babaloo Mandel, he began a screenwriting career. Their credits include Night Shift, Splash, Gung Ho, Spies Like Us, Parenthood, City Slickers, A League of Their Own, Mr. Saturday Night, Forget Paris, Multiplicity, Ed TV and Fever Pitch. In 2019, they received the Writers Guild Laurel Award for Lifetime Achievement in Screenwriting. Lowell also, along with Garry Marshall, wrote a play, Wrong Turn at Lungfish, which was produced at Steppenwolf in Chicago, in Los Angeles and Off Broadway. He considers the opportunity to be part of the creative team that is bringing a new musical to Broadway a highlight of his career. Lowell lives in Los Angeles with his wife Jeanne. They have three children and five grandchildren, and he still roots for the Mets.

BABALOO MANDEL (Book) was born and raised in The Bronx, where his school grades disproved that all Jews were smart. At age 10, he was figuratively struck by lightning upon seeing the classic film Some Like It Hot. In 1972, he left New York for Hollywood to pursue his Some Like It Hot screenwriting dream. He soon landed his first writing job on the TV series M*A*S*H. He was immediately fired and his office thoroughly fumigated. Several years later, after writing jokes for comics, great pity befell him by Lowell Ganz. He worked on several TV shows co-run by Mr. Ganz, until an opportunity came along to fulfill Babaloo's screenwriting dream. Together they have written 20 films, among them Splash, Parenthood, A League of Their Own and four films for the luminescent Billy Crystal (in case he reads this) — City Slickers 1 and 2, Mr. Saturday Night and Forget Paris. In 2019 they were recipients of the Writers Guild Lifetime Achievement Award. In his personal life, Babaloo has been married for 46 years, because who else would marry him? Together he and his wife Denise, who he has known since she was 14, have six children and two grandchildren. As for Mr. Saturday Night, the Broadway-bound musical, this goes beyond a 10-year-old boy’s dream.

JASON ROBERT BROWN (Composer/Orchestrator & Arranger) Jason’s musicals include Songs for a New World, Parade (Best Score Tony Award), The Last Five Years (also a feature film), 13 (being released on Netflix summer 2022), The Bridges of Madison County (Best Score and Best Orchestrations Tony Awards), Honeymoon In Vegas. Jason’s albums as a singer-songwriter include Wearing Someone Else’s Clothes, How We React and How We Recover, Live in Concert with Anika Noni Rose and this year’s Coming From Inside the House with Ariana Grande and Shoshana Bean. Upcoming: The Connector; Farewell My Concubine; concerts and Hadassah meetings. Mr. Saturday Night marks Jason’s first collaboration with any of these people and they all seem nice.

AMANDA GREEN (Lyrics) is a Tony Award-nominated lyricist/composer, writer and performer. She wrote the lyrics and co-composed Hands on a Hardbody (Tony, Outer Critics Circle and two Drama Desk Award nominations for Music & Lyrics, first woman composer to receive the Frederick Loewe Award for Outstanding Composition). In the same season she co-wrote lyrics for Bring It On (Tony-nominated for Best Musical, Drama Desk nomination for Lyrics); also Broadway: High Fidelity (Lyrics); Additional book and lyrics for Tony-nominated revival of Kiss Me, Kate; Additional lyrics for Tony-nominated revival of On the Twentieth Century. TV: Peter Pan Live, The Kennedy Center Honors. She is currently writing the lyrics for Female Troubles, an original musical comedy which she describes as “Jane Austen meets Bridesmaids but about Women’s Reproductive Freedoms.” Amanda is the first woman President of The Dramatists Guild of America.

JOHN RANDO (Director) BSC Associate Artist. BSC: The Royal Family of Broadway, The Pirates of Penzance, On the Town, Guys and Dolls. He won the 2002 Best Director Tony Award and Outer Critics Circle Award for Urinetown the Musical. Other Broadway credits include: On the Town (Tony nom for Direction), A Christmas Story, The Wedding Singer, Penn & Teller, A Thousand Clowns, among others. City Center Encores productions include: The New Yorkers, High Button Shoes, It’s a Bird... It’s a Plane... It’s Superman!, Annie Get Your Gun, Gentlemen Prefer Blondes, Damn Yankees, Face the Music, Of Thee I Sing, The Pajama Game, Do Re Mi and Strike Up the Band (all for City Center Encores!). Off Broadway credits include Jerry Springer: The Opera (The New Group), David Ives’s The Heir Apparent (2014 SDCF Callaway Award for Direction—Classic Stage Company) and All in the Timing
(2013 Obie Award for Direction). Internationally, John’s work can be seen in China with two original musicals: Jay Chou’s The Secret and Jonathan Lee’s Spirit of Life. Currently John’s hit production of the new musical Back to the Future can be seen on London’s West End.

MISSION
Barrington Stage Company (BSC) is a not-for-profit professional theatre company in the Berkshires (MA) with a three-fold mission: to produce top-notch, compelling work; to develop new plays and musicals; and to engage our community with vibrant, inclusive educational outreach programs.

ABOUT
Barrington Stage Company is the fastest-growing arts venue in Berkshire County, attracting more than 60,000 patrons each year. Co-founded by Artistic Director Julianne Boyd in 1995, BSC continues to gain national recognition for its superior-quality productions and comprehensive educational programming. In its first 11 years, BSC operated from rented space at the Consolati Performing Arts Center at Mount Everett High School in Sheffield, MA.

In July 2005, BSC purchased a 1912 vaudeville theatre in downtown Pittsfield, MA and in August 2006, BSC opened its doors to the Boyd-Quinson Stage, a renovated 520-seat, state-of-the-art theatre. In the spring of 2012, BSC purchased the former VFW building in Pittsfield, three blocks from the Boyd-Quinson Stage. The building, now called the Sydelle and Lee Blatt Performing Arts Center, houses the 136-seat St. Germain Stage and Mr. Finn’s Cabaret, a 99-seat cabaret space in the lower level of the building. In 2016, BSC purchased a three-story administrative building on North Street, known as the Wolfson Center, in the heart of downtown Pittsfield. For the first time in the company’s history, all BSC offices, rehearsal spaces and classrooms are under one roof, including the costume shop and storage. In 2019, BSC purchased a 22,000 sq. foot building at 34 Laurel Street that has become its Production Center, housing the set, prop and paint shops. The Production Center is also the site of BSC’s outdoor tent productions in 2021.

Together with other cultural institutions, BSC has become an integral part of downtown Pittsfield’s economic revitalization. In 2009, the Massachusetts Cultural Council presented a “Creative Community” Commonwealth Award to the City of Pittsfield in recognition of its efforts to boost the creative economy in Massachusetts.

PRODUCTION HISTORY
BSC’s reputation for excellence began with a smash revival of Cabaret that moved to Boston in 1997 for an extended run. The theatre’s prominence grew with the world premiere of The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee by William Finn and Rachel Pictured: Dan Fogler, Deborah S. Craig, Celia Keenan-Bolger, Jesse Tyler Ferguson and Sarah Saltzberg in The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, BSC World Premiere 2004. Photo: Joe Schuyler.
Sheinkin (BSC 2004; Broadway 2005-2008, winner of two Tony Awards). Other notable productions include Mark St. Germain’s Freud’s Last Session (BSC 2009; Off Broadway 2010-2012); Leonard Bernstein, Comden & Green’s On the Town (BSC 2013; Broadway 2014, four Tony Award nominations); the world premiere of Christopher Demos-Brown’s American Son (BSC 2016; Broadway 2018); Stephen Sondheim and George Furth’s Company, starring Aaron Tveit (BSC 2017); and West Side Story in honor of Leonard Bernstein and Jerome Robbins’ centenaries (BSC 2018).

Following the industry-wide shutdown due to the coronavirus pandemic, BSC was the first Equity theatre in the US to return to live performance with its critically acclaimed production of Harry Clarke, starring BSC Associate Artist Mark H. Dold and directed by Ms. Boyd.

The 2021 season, featuring a series of critically acclaimed indoor and outdoor productions, has included Chester Bailey by Joseph Dougherty starring father and son Reed and Ephraim Birney, Eleanor by Mark St. Germain and starring Tony Award winner Harriet Harris, the world premiere of Sister Sorry by Alec Wilkinson, the revue Who Could Ask for Anything More? The Songs of George Gershwin and the world premiere of Boca, a collection of short comedies by Jessica Provenz. The season concludes with the world premiere of A Crossing: A Dance Musical, created in association with the Calpulli Mexican Dance Company, choreographed by Joshua Bergasse and Alberto Lopez and directed by Bergasse.

COMMITMENT TO NEW WORK

BSC develops and commissions new work with two programs: PlayWorks, which supports the creation of new plays, and the Musical Theatre Lab, which develops new musicals.

At Barrington Stage Company, we believe that new work is the heart and soul of theatre. If theatre is to thrive and create meaningful and new experiences for audiences, then it is vital to support working playwrights and their visions of the world we live in. Since its inception in 1995, BSC has produced 36 new works, 19 of which have moved on to New York and major regional theatres around the country.
In 2019, the Board of Directors created the Julianne Boyd New Works Fund to support artistic innovation and sustainability. Named for BSC’s Co-founder and Artistic Director, who has a long-held commitment of bringing fresh and dynamic voices to the stage, the Fund supports the ongoing development and production of original plays and musicals. This Fund is made possible in part by the generous support of the Sydelle Blatt New Works Commission Program and the Bonnie and Terry Burman New Play Award. Their vision and philanthropy allow BSC to develop and produce work that challenges us, that asks questions and that can spark joy and passion in our hearts. BSC seeks artists whose unique voices speak to our audiences with relevant and dynamic new work that questions the world we live in — questions that may not have answers, but will begin a dialogue between the artists and our audiences.

COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION

The BSC Education mission is to awaken the minds, imaginations and creative power of children, teenagers and young adults by providing opportunities for them to experience the joy of live theatre as performers, writers, technicians and audience members.

BSC EDUCATION PROGRAMS

PLAYWRIGHT MENTORING PROJECT is an intensive, six-month, out-of-school activity that uses theatre as a catalyst to help youth ages 13–19 learn valuable life skills that can aid them in developing a positive self-image. Over the course of the program, teens are enabled to create an original performance piece based on their own stories in a safe and confidential environment where they can express themselves, develop conflict/resolution skills and create a supportive community. Winner of the Coming Up Taller Award from the President’s Committee on the Arts and Humanities.

MUSICAL THEATRE CONSERVATORY is an intensive pre-professional training program in Acting, Directing and Choreography where students work and train with top-level New York directors, choreographers and musical theatre writers during BSC’s summer season.

PROFESSIONAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAM is a professional training program where paid internships are offered to college students and recent graduates interested in pursuing careers in theatre. Interns work with award-winning theatre professionals while spending a summer in the thriving theatre culture of the Berkshires.
YOUTH THEATRE extends the professionalism of our stages to local youth, whereby students mount a full-scale musical theatre production. The 2022 production will be the world premiere of The Supadupa Kid — Book by Melvin Tunstall III, Music by Joel Waggoner, Lyrics by Sukari Jones, Based on the novel by Ty Allan Jackson.

STUDENT MATINEE/SCHOOL RESIDENCY PROGRAM During Fall productions, students are brought to special all-student matinees and invited to stay for a talkback with members of the creative team. The school administration and faculty are provided with a study guide that prepares students for the production which provides a springboard for teachers to build lesson plans tying their curriculum to the show.

KIDSACT!, TEENSACT! & KIDSACT! JR. are spring and summer day camps where students learn all aspects of theatre and what it takes to create quality productions. Winner of the 2019 Macaroni Kid Berkshire Family Favorite Theater Class.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

We acknowledge that we are gathering on the ancestral homelands of the Mohican people. Despite tremendous hardship in being forced from here, today their community resides in Wisconsin and is known as the Stockbridge-Munsee Community. We pay honor and respect to them and their ancestors as we commit to building a more inclusive and equitable space for all.

Barrington Stage Company recognizes that we are a predominantly white institution that has historically benefited from systemic racism. We commit to anti-racism and anti-oppression throughout our organization. Black lives matter. We accept the responsibility to fight to end racial inequities in our theatre and our industry.

Barrington Stage Company is committed to a workplace free of discrimination on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age or disability. Our work seeks to celebrate all members of our community and amplify the marginalized voices who are often silenced. It is our responsibility to prioritize and protect from discrimination and oppression those who make our work possible. We stand in solidarity against bigotry and racism. We will hold our artists, staff, board, audience members, volunteers and donors accountable to these principles.

BOYD-QUINSON STAGE

Music & Lyrics by various artists
Conceived by Richard Maltby, Jr. and Murray Horwitz
Directed & Choreographed by Camille A. Brown
Co-production with Westport Country Playhouse
AUGUST 5–28

“Ms. Brown is one of the most expressive, genuine and deeply felt choreographers working today.”
- THE NEW YORK TIMES

WINNER OF 10 TONY AWARDS

This evening of unforgettable music made famous by Fats Waller includes “Honeysuckle Rose,” “Your Feet’s Too Big,” “The Joint is Jumpin’” and “Tain’t Nobody’s Biz-ness If I Do,” to name a few. Join us for these rowdy, raunchy and humorous songs that capture the love, longing and zest for life of 1920s Harlem, reimagined by the incomparable director/choreographer Camille A. Brown (2019 Tony Nominee for Best Choreography, Choir Boy).

ST. GERMAIN STAGE

By Brent Askari
MAY 26–JUNE 18

WORLD PREMIERE

In 1976, the artist Andy Warhol, having re-invented himself as the portrait painter of the rich and famous, travels to Tehran to meet the Shah of Iran’s wife, the Empress Farah Pahlavi. In Andy Warhol In Iran, the iconic American painter visits the country to take Polaroids of the Empress, see the crown jewels and eat cheap caviar — only to encounter a young revolutionary who throws his plans into turmoil.
